

The MHSAA is currently in the process of changing the way season schedules are submitted by officials for postseason consideration. Please check back to this page after the start of the season to submit your schedule. An email reminder will also be sent to all registered officials when the change has been completed.